+The Beloved Anna Mae Knezovich

We gather today to pray for the soul of beloved +Anna Mae and to thank God for her long and beautiful life. Beloved +Anna Mae had a zest for living. She was full of energy.

God blessed +Anna Mae abundantly. God blessed her with an extraordinary long life. God blessed +Anna Mae with a loving marriage to her husband +Steve that lasted forty one years.

+Anna Mae and Steve were blessed by God to be the parents of Steve, Susan and Martin. Their lives were enriched with Steve's wife Linda, Susan's husband Dennis, and Martin's wife Tammy.

Grandchildren Denton, Alexandra, Keith, Alexander, Rachel, Elizabeth, Julianne and Jennifer increased the joy in Anna Mae's life. Great-grandchildren Luca, Amalya, Teagan and Madigan added to her life's fulfillment. Anna Mae's nieces and nephews are among the family members cherishing their memories of their beloved aunt.

Beloved Anna Mae freely chose to be and remain an Orthodox Christian. She put her heart in actively serving and being a part of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church.

+Anna Mae worked actively and earnestly for the St. George Circle of Serbian Sisters, the Kolo, on baking and other Kolo projects. She was an enthusiastic and faithful member of the St. George Choir.

+Anna Mae valued getting her home blessed each year. She was welcoming and supporting of the parish priest. She was loved dearly by the St. George parishioners.

+Anna Mae was proud of and loved her family. She was eager to talk about her family and the joy the family brought to her. +Anna Mae lived in Denbo but her life's knowledge reached into different parts of the world.

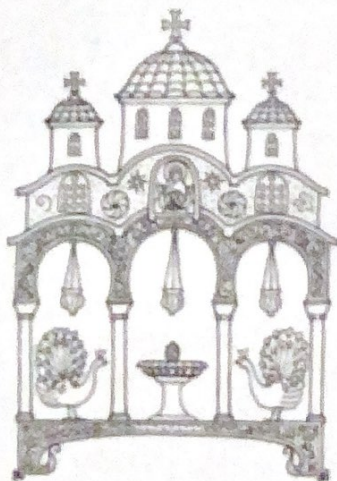

+Anna Mae packed a lot of living into her life. She made good use of the health that God gave to her. She manifested great love for her family, St. George Serbian Orthodox Church and the community where she lived.

Today we thank God for +Anna Mae being an integral part
